Semaine Lis avec moi is a week about reading that encourages parents, grandparents, teachers, youth leaders and all adults in Quebec to get involved and read to a child. Visit the event's website to discover all the activities offered or discover the program at different public locations, such as libraries and schools. On the agenda: meetings with authors and illustrators, online storytelling hour, suggestions for reading interventions in the "Boîte à idées." Also, entertainment, shows and workshops for reading and writing await children 0 to 12 years old. Share your love for reading!
